ING VYSYA SPONSORS 18TH PUNE INTERNATIONAL MARATHON

BRINGS ING GLOBERUNNING SPONSORSHIP TO INDIA AFTER NEW YORK, AMSTERDAM AND BRUSSELS

Pune, December 15, 2003: ING Vysya, the banking, life insurance and mutual funds financial services, who were the presenting sponsor of the 18th Pune International Marathon. The marathon took place on the December 14, 2003.

The sponsorship is part of a broader programme that the ING group is currently rolling out in selected key international markets. This global sponsorship programme, ING Globberunners, aims to enhance awareness of the unified ING brand through supporting distance-running events. The ING Globberunners programme demonstrates ING's serious commitment to the sport of running and its desire to add to the development of the sport. The group currently is the title sponsor for ING Amsterdam Marathon, ING New York City Marathon and the ING Brussels Marathon.

The theme for the Pune International Marathon this year is – "Run for fun & fitness". The participation this year is likely to be in excess of 30,000 runners spreading across 11 countries. This year, a total prize money of Rs 12 lakhs will be offered to the winners. The winners in the Men's category take 2.5 lakh while the Women's category winner gets 1.5 lakh.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr Sunil Gulati, EVP and Head, Investment and Corporate Banking and Regional CEO for Western, ING Vysya Bank Limited said, "I am very excited about ING Vysya's association with this event. This association is an excellent opportunity to enhance the awareness of the unified ING Vysya brand across the country. The Marathon games match perfectly with ING Vysya in several ways. Marathon runners like to achieve something and exceed limits of their capabilities and the same goes for ING Vysya. Running in a marathon requires strategy, endurance and smart management of resources just like what a well run company requires. We are therefore glad that ING Vysya will be contributing to the further development of this event.”
